

First Nations Food, Nutrition and Environment Study Timeline for Alberta

2013

Methodology Workshop	April
Presentations to invited First Nations	April - June
Signing of Community Research Agreement	June-July
Collection of Traditional Foods	July - December
Launch of the Study in the participant First Nations communities	September
Household Questionnaires	October - December
Collection of water samples	October - December
Study wrap up and shipment of all collected samples and study materials to the university and lab	December

2014

Data and sample analysis	January - August
Letters sent if exceedences found in tap water	June - July
Results of mercury in hair returned to individuals	July - August
Community reports provided to participant communities for review	September - November

2015

Final Community Reports presented to participant communities	January - February
Release of Regional Report	April - June
Data Training Workshops (data transfered to communities)	June